EVALUATION OF COURSE

1. The Swiss Minister to the Argentine in September 1946, according to source, transferred to the Argentine Government funds previously deposited by the German Ambassador with the Swiss Legation. Among them were: 54 Peruvian gold soles; 22,000 Chilean gold pesos; 3,500 gold dollars (source believes that they may have been in $20 dollar gold pieces); 4,196 gold sovereigns.
2. Source reports that agents of Fritz Mandl are offering to help former Nazis, SS officers, and German technicians of various categories to emigrate to the Argentine to be placed in former German enterprises nationalized by the Argentine Government.
3. A group of German Protestant pastors, source reports, recently arrived in the Argentine. They are said to be communicating with a Protestant Missionary Society in Basel. Source says that it may be used to cover neo-Nazi propaganda.
